

Be sure
to write if I can help you?

10. VI. 39.

J. O. Barry-Walsh. Esq.

Dear Mr Barry. Walsh;

I felt so sorry yesterday, you came such a long way out, and your interview was so short! It always seems so un-Irish when one cannot talk over a cup of tea, so you must do me the honour of coming to 103, when I shall have one, or two nice Irish friends there to greet you, I always try to meet a friend or two, when I finish my case.

And in the meantime, I shall do my utmost to swell the ranks, if only one had more free time!

I forgot to give you the home address of "Mr. Carew", as I do not know in what particular dept he is at "Fords"; he is a nice fellow, you will like him, but I do hope he can help you, it is no fun taking all those journeys in vain!

To ring up "Miss Keating" she will help you, once you start her, but she will not write, as she has so much writing to do,
that is, for her own business.

It was nice meeting you, coming from our dear homeland, and I thank you for the pleasure of your visit,
trusting we may speed the cause!!

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,
M. O'Donnell.